Kriss Kolumbus Discovers New World

Kriss Kolumbus discovered a new world Saturday—the world of champions.

Kriss, a basset hound belonging to Bob Reed of 418 Berrian St., Claremont, was judged the best dog exhibited in the Kids' Dog Show sponsored by Pomona Valley Center in conjunction with Ken-L-Ration Dog Foods.

Kriss also took the prize for having the longest ears among dogs shown. Kriss' ears are a floppy 9¼ inches long.

The dog with the shortest tail had no tail at all.

"Tiny was born that way," explained owner Diane Dunn of 310 Springfield St., Claremont, of the tailless Chihuahua.

Duchess, a black Great Dane belonging to Ken and Karen Helman of 2190 Castle Pl., won two titles—largest dog in show and longest tail—19¾ inches.

Little Prayer, a 6½-month-old Chihuahua belonging to Mark Skidmore, 555 E. H St., Ontario, won the smallest dog title and Mitzi a Pekingese belonging to Cathy Wilson of 1961 Palmgrove Ave., won the title for the best costumed dog. Mitzi was dressed as a princess. Others came as sailors, football players, babies and city slickers.

The show drew 160 entries and a crowd estimated at 300. Judges were Jack Hoxsey, Gene Neighbors and Regina Smith.

Second place winners were entries belonging to Joe Haynie, 2190 Castle Pl., largest dog; Jody Beck, 7904 Valle Vista St., Cucamonga, longest ears; David Orlando, 2717 Ar-row Hwy., La Verne, longest tail; Richard Lundgress, 858 N. Campus Ave., Ontario, shortest tail; Michelle Shepard, 529 S. Cypress St., Ontario, smallest dog, and Heidi Johnson, 618 W. Base Line Rd., Claremont, best costumed.

First and second place winners will compete in finals to be held at Disneyland at a date to be announced.

Prizes, trophies and ribbons were awarded, with Bob Reed getting the top prize of a boy's wrist watch. All contestants received special sacks of miscellaneous prizes.
