Evelyn Lawrence, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Lawrence, 253 East Seventh street, has been seriously ill the past three days. She was slightly improved last night, but is still in a critical condition.

FUNERAL OF W. H. FULLER MONDAY

W. H. Fuller, a barber employed at D. A. Hinchman's shop, a resident of 744 East Third street, died late yesterday at the Pomona Valley hospital as a result of hemorrhage due from liver trouble.

The deceased came to Pomona from Los Angeles but three months ago. He is survived by a wife and five children. There are also two sisters living in this state and a brother in the east.

Mr. Fuller was born at Wheeling, West Virginia on December 7, 1870. As a boy he went with his parents to Ashland, Nebraska and lived there until March of last year when he came to Los Angeles.

The funeral will be held at the Todd and Patterson chapel at 10 o'clock Monday. Rev. C. R. Hudson, pastor of the Christian church, of which the deceased was a life long member, will officiate. Interment will be made in the Pomona cemetery.

LITTLE NEWSBOY DIES OF INJURIES

Stewart Spencer Fuller, the little boy who was selling papers on Second street Thursday evening and was hit by an automobile driven by J. L. Wenig, died this morning as a result of the injuries. The inquest will be held Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

At the time it was not thought that his injuries were of a serious nature. The boy was apparently just touched by the auto, but he never fully regained consciousness and passed away today. He was but 7 years of age, the son of Mrs. W. H. Fuller of 744 East Third street.

The little fellow was on the south side of Second street near the McIntire cigar shop when a party on the north side of the street motioned to him that they wanted a paper. He darted across the street, not seeing the Wenig auto approaching. Mr. Wenig did everything possible to stop, but there was no opportunity for him to do so, altho the car was not moving fast when it touched the boy.

D. L. Fuller Takes Ontario Girl As Bride

Announcement was made today of the marriage of Miss Mildred J. Mason of Ontario to Durward L. Fuller of Pomona, last Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 18, at 8 o'clock, at Riverside. The ceremony was read at First Methodist church with the Rev. Lewis Gillies officiating. Mr. and Mrs. E. Mason of Ontario, parents of the bride, were the wedding guests.

After the ceremony the bridal party returned to the Mason home in Ontario, where supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Fuller are now making their home in Pomona.

The bride is a native of Ontario, and Mr. Fuller came to Southern California six years ago. He is employed at the Pomona Valley Creamery. He is the son of Mrs. Ruth B. Fuller of 253 E. 7th street.

High School Star Athlete Slugged Unconscious and Robbed; Bandit Escapes

Jack Robert Leman, 17, of 253 E. 7th street, Pomona high school basketball star, was slugged unconscious and robbed of $18 by an unidentified prowler as he was entering the garage by way of an alley at the rear of his home early last night, police said today. The prowler escaped.

A neighbor heard Leman's cry for help and found the youth, unconscious, with his head injured severely, lying in the alley. Leman's mother also heard the cry, but not distinctly.

The purse from which the money was taken was found about 15 feet east of the garage, emptied of its contents.

Jack told officers he was closing the door of the garage when he was struck over the head. He said he didn't see anyone.

Leman recently completed a season with Pomona high school's varsity basketball team. He also plays football and baseball.

A son, Jackie Ray, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Lyon, 253 E. 7th street, on Monday, March 29, at 6:32 p.m. at Pomona Valley Community hospital. Weight of the infant was eight pounds, seven ounces.
