

Relocation Assistance Study & Policy Update

December 15, 2025

Purpose

Purpose: Present the Relocation Assistance Study and request Council direction on policy options

Objective:

- Review key findings and policy options from the Relocation Assistance Study
- Receive input and direction from the City Council on the preferred approach for revising relocation assistance amounts
- Obtain Council authorization for staff to prepare a draft resolution implementing the selected approach

Background

- The City's Rent Stabilization and Eviction Control Ordinance requires landlords to provide relocation assistance for certain "no-fault" evictions (e.g., substantial remodel, owner move-in)
- Previous Urgency Ordinance modeled relocation assistance amounts after peer cities
- City Council directed a Pomona-specific analysis to ensure local needs are met

Current Relocation Assistance Amounts

Tenant Household	Tenants Residing Less Than 3 Years	Tenants Residing More Than 3 Years	Income Eligible Tenants	Reduced Relocation (Eligible Landlords)
Eligible Tenant Household	$6,164	$8,074	$8,074	$5,926
Qualified Tenant Household	$12,998	$15,377	$15,377	$11,960

Study Overview

State Law:

- Under State law, landlords must provide relocation assistance equal to one month's rent
- The City may establish higher local standards to better address tenant needs

Methodology:

- Reviewed Pomona's local moving expenses, peer city practices, and the needs of vulnerable tenants (seniors, disabled, low-income) using current market data

Key Findings

Estimated total relocation costs in Pomona:

1-bedroom: $6,515

2-bedroom: $8,444

3-bedroom: $10,269

Factors reviewed:

- Moving supplies and labor
- Application fees for new housing
- Security deposits
- Utility connection charges
- Temporary storage
- Short-term lodging

Key Findings

Option 1: Rent-Multiple Model

- Payment = 3x tenant's current monthly rent (e.g., 1 BR \approx $6,561)
- Widely used in peer cities; simple and predictable

Option 2: Unit-Size Schedule

- Fixed payment by unit size (e.g., 1 BR: $6,515; 2 BR: $8,444; 3 BR: $10,269)
- Based on Pomona-specific cost estimates

Peer jurisdictions typically provide supplemental payments averaging 30% above base for vulnerable households.

Comparison of Policy Options

	1 Bedroom	2 Bedroom	3 Bedroom
3x Monthly Rent (HUD FMRs)
Base Payment*	$6,561	$8,280	$10,551
+ 30% Supplement (vulnerable households)	$8,529	$10,764	$13,716
50% Reduction (small landlord)	$3,281	$4,410	$5,276
Unit Size Schedule
Base Payment	$6,515	$8,444	$10,269
+ 30% Supplement (vulnerable households)	$8,470	$10,977	$13,350
50% Reduction (small landlord)	$3,258	$4,222	$5,135

Actual payments would be based on the tenant's current rent.*

Next Steps

- Council guidance will inform the draft resolution
- Staff will draft a resolution based on Council's direction, including any recommended supplements or reductions
- Once adopted, the resolution will update relocation assistance amounts under the Rent Stabilization and Eviction Control Ordinance

QUESTIONS?