Mayor Tim Sandoval
Pomona City Hall

Dear Mr. Mayor,

On December 3, 2017, Mothers Helping Others is throwing our 4th annual Holiday Extravaganza in the city of Pomona. The Holiday Extravaganza is a day of food, fun, and holiday cheer for the children & families of Pomona Unified School District. The children and their families will be invited to select a brand new toy, take a picture with Santa, and have a nice meal to eat at no charge to them. During the event, children will have the opportunity to win a bike or gaming device.

Mothers Helping Others mission is bridging the gap for families between sacrifice and necessity. This is a chance to give back to the community and give homeless, displaced, and at-risk children and adolescents a life-changing experience for the holidays. Events like ours give children a chance to take a break from the stressors they have to deal with in their everyday life and lets them focus on just being a kid. Supporting us helps show these students that the community truly cares about them.

Our goal is to host this fun filled day for families solely through donations. Therefore, we are reaching out to Walmart, Sam's Club, and Target for donations to help us with some of our big ticket items. Additionally, we are faced with the cost of our venue and are seeking your help with this.

This year, we will be hosting our Holiday Extravaganza at The Youth and Family Club of Pomona at 1420 South Garey Avenue. We will be inviting honor roll students from Pomona Unified, as well as after school programs focused on uniting the community and keeping these students on track to a bright future. Any donation, big or small, would help us tremendously and show that not only the community, but the leader of that community, is a champion of their success, despite economic status.

We would be grateful if you could support our Holiday Extravaganza with a donation of $500 to help us cover some of the costs of our venue. Your donation will be tax deductible as we are a 501c3 non-profit.

Sincerely,

Rikki Fine
