

The originality and variety of El Jefe menu can be directly attributed to our cooking staff. Originating from different regions of Mexico, they have brought their family favorites to share with us. Our goal at El Jefe is to bring authentic tastes of Mexico with all the flavors and variety they have to offer.

Our experience-inspired Mexican specialties are created with the highest quality beef, pork and chicken as well as gourmet vegetarian offerings. If you start with the finest ingredients, you'll end up with the best tasting cuisine. El Jefe selects only the best and freshest ingredients available. Our Goal will be to establish our Specialty Sunday Brunch to be the best in the Region.
