Works with the director in groups in all of the phases of the play production. Coaching the actors, directing the construction of scenery, purchasing materials and supplies. Very important, provides social leadership to the students in the program. In addition, he will be in charge of providing transportation across high-risk areas in Pomona. In the past, we have had this experience where these students participated, in the program; however, since they had to cross the enemy lines, the students missed rehearsals.
