INSPECTOR GENERAL COMMUNICATION

Stephen Connoly confirmed the Inspector General's office was following the investigation that had been assigned to the Inspector General's office last month.

Chair Russell asked about the Police Oversight Commission's ability to weigh in on the department's investigation before a decision is rendered.

Mr. Connoly stated his understanding of the Commission's role is that once the Internal Affairs department completes the investigation, the Chief of Police or City Manager make a decision. The investigation is then provided to the Inspector General's office. The IG's office then prepares a report for the Police Oversight Commission and from there the Commission may make recommendations to the Police Department.

Chair Russell requested that the IG's office and herself research the Commission's role and discuss further at next month's meeting.

STAFF COMMUNICATION

Police Chief Ellis announced a promotional process had been completed and introduced Captain Alyssa Bostrom and Captain Deon Brown. Captain Brown would also now be the official PD liaison to the Police Oversight Commission. Lastly, Chief Ellis invited the commissioners to attend the upcoming promotion ceremony.

Commission Secretary Robles recommended agendizing the selection of a Chair and Vice Chair for the meeting in February as is required of every commission per the standard commission by-laws.

City Clerk Butler confirmed the Annual Report presentation scheduled for the January 26, 2026 City Council meeting would be moved and re-scheduled to the February 23, 2026 City Council meeting.
