The City's Public Art Collection is on a live document that can be found here -- Working Registry List Map \(PUBLIC VIEW\).xlsx and always accessible through our website at www.pomonaca.gov/culturalarts.

The Registry List Map outlines the following information regarding each artwork: address, if it was Art in Public Places funded, type of art, the artist(s), artwork title, who commissioned the artwork, date of completion, description of work, images, medium, and ownership of the artwork.

The City's Public Art Registry recognizes specific artworks may be funded for preservation/restoration if they are (1) City-Owned, (2) funded or partially funded by the City (pre-dating the AIPP Ordinance), or have been (3) funded by the Art in Public Places Fund. Artworks outside of these qualifications and/or not specified on the registry may be presented on a case-by-case basis to the City pending status of AIPP Ordinance relation (i.e. related to Private Development requirements from the AIPP Ordinance or Private Property murals that will require further evaluation).
